INVITATION

It is my pleasure to invite you all to the 43rd Annual Convention of the Indian Society for Veterinary Medicine and National Conference on “Precision Veterinary Medicine: Emerging Technologies, Innovation and Future Frontiers in Livestock, Companion Animals and Wildlife Health” scheduled during February 10-12, 2027 at the Department of Veterinary Clinical Medicine, Ethics & Jurisprudence, Nagpur Veterinary College, Nagpur, a constituent college of Maharashtra Animal and Fishery Sciences University, Nagpur, . The National Conference will not only bring veterinary professionals, scientists, researchers, academicians, practitioners, students and industry people working in the field of veterinary medicine under one umbrella but also provide an opportunity for deliberations, interaction and exchange of ideas for the overall improvement of animal health and its benefits to mankind. The National Conference will cover topics on current practices and future development in precision veterinary medicine for livestock, companion animals and wildlife health. We look forward to welcome you in Nagpur and to your active participation and contribution.

About Institute:

Nagpur Veterinary College was established on July 1, 1958, initially with three departments (Anatomy, Physiology and Animal Husbandry) and affiliated with Nagpur University. The college was the constituent college of Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Krishi Vidyapeeth, Akola. After the establishment of Maharashtra Animal and Fishery Sciences University, Nagpur on 3rd December, 2000, the college was transferred to MAFSU. The college is offering an undergraduate teaching programme i.e. B.V.Sc.& A.H. with an intake capacity of 80 students, a post-graduate degree programme i.e.M.V.Sc.in18 disciplines and a doctoral degree programme in 18 disciplines. The notable stalwarts of veterinary medicine nurtured the Department and grew it to the fame of national repute.
