

To Our Contributors

The Editorial Team is highly thankful to esteemed ISVM members and veterinary fraternity for contributing overwhelmingly for each and every issue of “Indian Journal of Veterinary Medicine”. We are very hopeful that scientists and clinicians will contribute their publications with more enthusiasm and also spare their valuable time to be a part of reviewer panel for the journal.

A website of the society (www.isvm.org.in) is functional and includes many features, such as online submission and viewing status of manuscripts, online membership forms etc. Please send your articles using this website.

With your scientific contributions, we could able to bring the Journal NAAS rating to 4.57 and aspire that your consistent support will further help us to improve the journal rating to a suitable level.
